To all Dahlia Lovers

THE following list I believe contains about as choice a collection of Dahlias as it is possible to get together. The Prize Winners of California, Oregon, and the West as well as of the East are here listed, also the very best of the older varieties that have stood the test of time. I have tried hundreds of varieties and only those that have passed the test as to stems, size and quality of bloom will be found in my list.

Bulbs true to name and satisfactory in all respects will be shipped, and I feel that I can please all patrons looking for quality.

Yours respectfully,

H. McCONOCHIE.

AS TO ORDERS

 (Notice.) Orders taken at Fall Shows and all others not fully paid for will be sent C. O. D.

Please send order early as the demand on some choice sorts, always exceeds the supply.

Unpack bulbs on receipt but do not plant until the last of May in this climate.

Address all orders to H. McConochie, Cromwell, Conn.

Welcome to my gardens. Will be pleased to see you any time.

Dahlia Garden situated at Station 10 on the State Road from Hartford to Middletown.

Latest California Creations

D.—Decorative. H. C.—Hybrid Cactus. P.—Peony.
C.—Cactus H. S.—Hybrid Show.

- Amun Ra (Seal) D. This immense decorative, of an entirely new formation, resembles in color a glorious setting sun. Dahlia Garden

We are situated at Station 10, on the main road between Middletown and Hartford in the Town of Cromwell. This season we have 5,500 Dahlias, comprising the California Creations of Bessie Boston, Burns, Carl Salbach, Jessie Seale, Doolittle, Broomal and others. The Mastic Creations from Oregon, also from Lee in Washington. The latest and best in the East. Stillman, Slocumb, Alexander, Dahleadel, Judge Mareau and many others are the originators of these beautiful eastern creations. The Prize Winners of England, Holland and France. Without a doubt the finest collection in New England. Worth coming miles to see. You are welcome to the gardens at any time. Come and pick out your bulbs for next season.
